Rules and Regulations

- 1 Entry Fees, as stated in each section.
- 2 Members and Judges will be admitted to the grounds on production of their Membership tickets or passes. All persons not members shall pay for admittance to the Show the sum prescribed unless otherwise provided with a pass from the Secretary.
- 3 All exhibits must remain at the Show until the section's Chief Steward approves the removal of same, or prize money forfeited.
- 4 Awards will be made in all classes unless otherwise specified, if the exhibit is deemed of sufficient merit, and should any person make any entered as non-competitive by the Secretary. The Committee reserves the right to receive such exhibits if space permits, if of sufficient merit for exhibition purposes only.
- 5 In all classes of single entry, it shall be at the discretion of Judge to award a prize, if exhibit is deemed by him to be of sufficient merit. The Society has the right to refuse entries without giving a reason.
- 6 Exhibits are not allowed to compete in classes and afterwards in collections.
- 7 Exhibitors when called upon by the Steward or Committee shall prove the correctness of their certificate of entry.
- 8 All farm and garden produce must have been grown by the exhibitor unless otherwise stated. Any breach of this regulation will render the exhibitor liable for forfeiture of any prize, and open to disqualification for future exhibitions. Any exhibitor refusing or preventing awards to be affixed, interfering with Show Officials, refusing to obey instructions of the Stewards, interfering with exhibits or detention of exhibits, or Society's property, may render himself or herself liable to disqualification for a period not exceeding three (3) years. Abusive language and insulting behaviour, wilfully making wrong entry of exhibit or competitor, entry of fraudulent exhibitor or competitor may render an exhibitor to be disqualified for five (5) years.
9. Society reserves the right of refusing to admit any exhibit to the grounds where there is a reason to suspect it is either diseased or dangerous, or to remove any such exhibit from the exhibition.
10. The Society will not under any circumstances hold itself liable for any accident on the grounds or premises.

- 11 Exhibitors and persons admitted to the grounds shall be subject to the Rules and Regulations and the Orders of the Stewards.
- 12 Any exhibitor removing his exhibit from the stall allocated without the consent of the stewards will be disqualified from competing.
- 13 The Society will not under any circumstance hold itself liable for any accident, loss, damage or non-delivery of livestock or other exhibits at the Society's Show, and it shall be a condition of entry that each exhibitor shall hold the Society blameless and indemnify it against any legal proceedings arising through any accident, loss, non-delivery or damage whatsoever.
- 14 No Steward, Officer or Member of the Committee wearing the Society's badge shall hold an exhibit before a Judge, while same is being judged. Breach of this rule shall disqualify the exhibit.
- 15 The Steward will see that all exhibits competing will have a label or card with the number written legibly thereon, and that the judges be furnished with an award paper corresponding with the number of the label or card. They will also supply them with badges and afford them all information and attention necessary for the discharge of their duties.
- 16 No ribbon other than those won at the current Show is to be worn or displayed at the Showground, but such ribbons may be affixed to stall after finally judged.
- 17 Protests may be lodged at the Secretary's office in writing with a fee of $20 not later than one (1) hour after the judging of the event, in which the protest is to be made. If the protest is considered frivolous by the Committee, the deposit shall become forfeited to the Secretary.
- 23 No stock shall be permitted to run loose on the grounds during the show days and nights, unless by permission of the Stewards or Secretary.
- 24 In the event where insufficient entries are received the Society reserves the rights to cancel the competition or reduce the advertised prize money.
- 25 Judges have the power to withhold any prize if they consider the exhibit of insufficient merit.

ALL ENTRY FEES ARE GST INCLUSIVE.
GST WILL BE ADDED TO THE PRIZEMONEY FOE
